

A new word in my vocabulary which I hope to use often. The Web page was truly moving, honest and reflective.

A favourite liferal experience for me occurred several years ago when I attended a 90th birthday party for a very special lady and many of us spoke and shared our memories, experiences and affection for this wonderful person in her presence.

It was so much more pleasurable than listening to tributes spoken at a funeral.

Congratulations on choosing such a significant word with uplifting value.
